

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Louisa Frederiksen
Director of Development & Community Relations
(540) 665-5923
lfrederiksen@svwc.org

Book Signing and Reception to Benefit the Fellowship Fund
Westminster-Canterbury Resident, Dr. Fenton Babcock,
Publishes Book About Career in the CIA

What: A Mercurial Intelligence Career, Book Signing & Reception
Date: Friday, June 12
Time: 5:30-7:30 p.m.
Where: Shenandoah Valley Westminster-Canterbury
In The Bistro & Gift Shoppe
Cost: None
Reservations: Not Required

Shenandoah Valley Westminster-Canterbury will hold a Book Signing and Reception to benefit the Fellowship Fund on Friday, June 12 2009 from 5:30-7:30 p.m.

Dr. Fenton Babcock will sign copies of his newly published book, A Mercurial Intelligence Career, on Friday, June 12, 2009 from 5:30 -7:30 p.m. at Westminster-Canterbury. The book details his accomplishments with the CIA and the intense assignments he undertook with the agency. In addition to earning three degrees from Yale University, Dr. Babcock received the prestigious Association for Intelligence Officers Lifetime Achievement Award in 2006.

The Fellowship Fund provides confidential financial assistance to qualified residents and has been a part of the Shenandoah Valley Westminster-Canterbury mission since the community's inception in 1985. If you would like to further information about this event, please contact Darleen Jones at 540-665-5390 or djones@svwc.org

Shenandoah Valley Westminster-Canterbury is a not-for-profit, intimate, church related continuing care retirement community that is committed to enabling residents to use their gifts fully, live their lives richly, and enjoy with dignity the years God has given them.