

The logo for Westminster Canterbury Shenandoah Valley features a stylized blue wave above the text. The word "Westminster" is in a smaller, green, serif font, while "Canterbury" is in a larger, green, serif font. Below "Canterbury", the words "SHENANDOAH VALLEY" are written in a smaller, green, sans-serif font.

Westminster Canterbury

SHENANDOAH VALLEY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – October 8, 2009

Contact: Louisa Frederiksen
Director of Development & Community Relations
(540) 665-5923
lfrederiksen@svwc.org

U.S. News & World Report ranks Shenandoah Valley Westminster-Canterbury #2 in the State of Virginia

Shenandoah-Valley Westminster Canterbury (SVWC) has tied for the 2nd place ranking of Best Nursing Home in the State of Virginia (14 out of 15 stars) in the recently created U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Nursing Homes" ranking. SVWC ranked 2nd to just two other communities in the State of Virginia, that received 15 out of a possible 15 stars.

U.S. News & World Report, long respected for its well known "Best Rankings" (Best Colleges & Universities, High Schools, Hospitals, Places to Live & Work, Places to Retire, etc...) published the "America's Best Nursing Homes" ranking, with data effective as of October 1, 2009.

Shenandoah Valley Westminster-Canterbury also received the coveted "five-star" quality rating from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). The "five-star" quality rating system provides a nursing home quality of care rating of 1 to 5 stars derived from three data sources - health survey inspections, quality measures, and the nurse staffing information from the most recent health survey inspection.

Additionally, U.S. News & World Report ranked Winchester, Virginia as one of the "10 Best Outdoorsy Places to Retire", in August of 2008.

Shenandoah Valley Westminster-Canterbury is a not-for-profit, intimate, church related continuing care retirement community that is committed to enabling residents to use their gifts fully, live their lives richly, and enjoy with dignity the years God has given them.